

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

MARTEL ARTIS,

Plaintiff

Case No. 2:24-cv-02186-APG-DJA

ORDER

v.

STATE OF NEVADA, et al.,

Defendants

I. DISCUSSION

On December 5, 2024, Plaintiff Martel Artis was an inmate in the custody of the Clark County Detention Center (“CCDC”) who filed an application to proceed in forma pauperis. (ECF No. 4). However, Plaintiff’s application to proceed in forma pauperis was incomplete because he had not submitted his jail trust fund account statement for the previous six-month period. The Court granted Plaintiff an extension of time until February 7, 2025, to submit the missing document. (ECF No. 5). In response, Plaintiff submitted another incomplete application to proceed in forma pauperis which, again, was missing his jail trust fund account statement for the previous six-month period. (ECF No. 6). On February 10, 2025, Plaintiff filed a change of address notifying the Court that he was now in the custody of the Nevada Department of Corrections (“NDOC”). (ECF No. 7). The Court will grant Plaintiff an extension of time to file a fully complete application to proceed in forma pauperis.

The United States District Court for the District of Nevada must collect filing fees from parties initiating civil actions. 28 U.S.C. § 1914(a). The fee for filing a civil-rights action is $405, which includes the $350 filing fee and the $55 administrative fee. See 28 U.S.C. § 1914(b). “Any person who is unable to prepay the fees in a civil case may apply to the court for leave to proceed in forma pauperis.” Nev. Loc. R. Prac. LSR 1-1. For an inmate to apply for in forma pauperis status, the inmate must submit all three of the following documents to the Court: (1) a completed Application to Proceed in Forma

Pauperis* for Inmate, which is pages 1–3 of the Court’s approved form, that is properly signed by the inmate twice on page 3; (2) a completed Financial Certificate, which is page 4 of the Court’s approved form, that is properly signed by both the inmate and a prison or jail official; and (3) a copy of the inmate’s prison or jail trust fund account statement for the previous six-month period. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1)–(2); Nev. Loc. R. Prac. LSR 1-2. In forma pauperis status does not relieve an inmate of his or her obligation to pay the filing fee, it just means that the inmate can pay the fee in installments. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b).

II. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, it is ordered that Plaintiff’s applications to proceed in forma pauperis from the CCDC (ECF Nos. 4, 6) are denied as incomplete.

The Clerk of the Court is kindly requested to send Plaintiff the approved form application to proceed in forma pauperis by an inmate with instructions.

It is further ordered that Plaintiff has until March 28, 2025, to either pay the full $405 filing fee or file a new fully complete application to proceed in forma pauperis with all three required documents: (1) a completed application with the inmate’s two signatures on page 3, (2) a completed financial certificate that is signed both by the inmate and the prison official, and (3) a copy of the inmate’s trust fund account statement for the previous six-month period.¹

Plaintiff is cautioned that this action will be subject to dismissal without prejudice if Plaintiff fails to timely comply with this order. A dismissal without prejudice allows Plaintiff to refile the case with the Court, under a new case number, when Plaintiff can file a complete application to proceed in forma pauperis or pay the required filing fee.
